Section 4 Goods the Exportation or Importation of which is Prohibited

Subsection 1 Goods the Exportation of which is Prohibited

(Verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-2. The Director General of Customs shall, in the verification procedures provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-3 (Verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act (hereinafter in this Article referred to as “verification procedures”), provide a patentholder or other right holder pertaining to goods subject to verification procedures (hereinafter in this Article, paragraph (1) of Article 62-12 and Article 62-13 referred to as “suspect goods”) and a person who exports these suspect goods (hereinafter in this Article referred to as “exporter”) with an opportunity to produce evidence and state their opinions as to whether these suspect goods fall under those goods set forth in item (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 (Goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act (a “patentholder or other right holder” as used in this paragraph means a holder of a patent right, utility model right, design right, trademark right, copyright, copyright neighboring right, plant breeder’s right, or a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition (i.e., a person referred to in paragraph (1) of Article 69-3 of the Act; the same applies in the next paragraph, item (iv) of paragraph (3) of this Article and paragraph (2) of Article 62-12)).

(2) The Director General of Customs shall, if the evidence produced pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and any other evidence employed in the verification procedures are to be taken as a basis for verification referred to in paragraph (5) of Article 69-3 of the Act, provide a patentholder or other right holder pertaining to the verification procedures (i.e., a holder of a patent right, utility model right, design right, trademark right, copyright, copyright neighboring right, plant breeder's right, or a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition (in the next paragraph and in item (ii) of paragraph (4) collectively referred to as "right holder")) or an exporter pertaining to the verification procedures with an opportunity to state their opinions with respect to the evidence.

(3) A notification to a right holder, as prescribed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 69-3 of the Act shall be issued in writing, stating the matters set forth in the following:

(i) the description of suspect goods;

(ii) the names and addresses of the exporter and consignee of suspect goods;

(iii) the details of the patent right, utility model right, design right, trademark right, copyright, copyright neighboring right or plant breeder's right (in the next Article collectively referred to as "right") pertaining to suspect goods (limited to those suspect goods subject to the verification procedures pertaining to goods set forth in item (iii) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 of the Act);

(iv) the details of indication of goods, etc., the details of configuration of goods or the details of technological restriction measures (i.e., the indication of goods, etc., configuration of goods or technological restriction measures as provided for in item (i), (ii), (iii), (xvii) or (xviii) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 (Definitions) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act (Act No. 47 of 1993) pertaining to a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition; the same applies in item (ii) of the next Article) pertaining to suspect goods (limited to those pertaining to the verification procedures for goods set forth in item (iv) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 of the Act);

(v) the reason for initiating verification procedures;

(vi) in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-4 (Procedures for application pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act has been accepted, if the verification procedures pertaining to the application are initiated, that fact;

(vii) the fact that the right holder may produce evidence and state the opinion to demonstrate that suspect goods fall under those set forth in item (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 of the Act, and the time limit therefor;

(viii) in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-4 of the Act has been accepted, if the verification procedures pertaining to the application are initiated, the fact that the right holder may inspect suspect goods by making an application within the time limit referred to in the preceding item;

(ix) any other relevant matters.

(4) A notification to an exporter as prescribed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 69-3 of the Act shall be issued in writing, stating the matters set forth in the following:

(i) the description and quantity of suspect goods, and the date of export declaration of these goods (in the case where suspect goods are postal items provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 76 (Simplified export or import procedures for postal items) of the Act, the date of presentation prescribed in paragraph (3) of that Article);

(ii) the name and address of a right holder;

(iii) the fact that an exporter may produce evidence and state the opinion to demonstrate that suspect goods do not fall under those set forth in item (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 of the Act, and the time limit therefor;

(iv) the fact that suspect goods may, if verified to fall under those set forth in item (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (1) of that Article, be confiscated and subject to disposal pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-2 of the Act;

(v) in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-4 of the Act has been accepted, if the verification procedures pertaining to the application are initiated, the fact that a person who has filed the application or an exporter (excluding an exporter who may inspect suspect goods pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article 40 of the Act (including the case where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 49 of the Act)) may inspect suspect goods upon application to be made within the time limit referred to in item (iii);

(vi) the matters set forth in items (iii) to (vi) and (ix) of the preceding paragraph.

(5) A notification prescribed in paragraph (3) of Article 69-3 of the Act shall be issued in writing.

(Procedures for filing an application pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-3. A person who files an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-4 (Procedures, etc. for filing an application pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act shall file with the Director General of Customs a written application stating the matters set forth in the following, accompanied by the evidence provided for in that paragraph:

(i) the details of the right (limited to the case where the person intends to file an

- application pertaining to goods set forth in item (iii) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 (Goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act);
- (ii) the details of indication of goods, etc., the details of configuration of goods or the details of technological restriction measures (limited to the case where the person intends to file an application pertaining to goods set forth in item (iv) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 of the Act);
- (iii) the description of goods found to infringe the right or business interests (i.e., business interests pertaining to goods set forth in item (iv) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-2 of the Act, infringed by the acts provided for in that item; the same applies in the next item);
- (iv) the reason why the goods referred to in the preceding item are found to infringe the right or business interests;
- (v) the desired period for which the application provided for in paragraph (3) of Article 69-4 of the Act is effective (the period shall be within four years);
- (vi) any other relevant matters.

(Provision of opportunity for inspection pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-4. A person who intends to conduct inspection prescribed in paragraph (4) of Article 69-4 (Procedures, etc. for filing application pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act shall, within the time limit referred to in item (vii) of paragraph (3) or item (iii) of paragraph (4), of Article 62-2, file a written application for inspection with the Director General of Customs, accompanied by a copy of a written notification referred to in paragraph (3) or (4) of that Article.

(Procedures for seeking opinions of technical advisers where application for export suspension is filed)

Article 62-5. If the Director General of Customs seeks opinions of technical advisers pursuant to the provisions of Article 69-5 (Seeking opinions of technical advisers where application for export suspension is filed) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall send to the technical advisers a document stating that fact and the reason therefor, accompanied by materials concerning goods pertaining to the application and any other materials that may serve as a reference for the technical advisers.

(Procedures for providing, pursuant to order of the Director General of Customs, deposit pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-6. A person who has filed an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-4 (Procedures, etc. for filing application pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act and has been ordered to provide monetary deposit pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2) of Article 69-6 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for export suspension) of the Act (in the next Article referred to as “applicant ordered to deposit”) shall, if the person has provided the deposit (including deposit of securities prescribed in paragraph (3) of Article 69-6 of the Act), submit an authenticated copy of certificate of deposit to the Director General of Customs without delay.

(2) The Director General of Customs shall, if an authenticated copy of certificate of deposit prescribed in the preceding paragraph has been submitted, deliver without delay a document stating that fact and a copy of the authenticated copy of certificate of deposit to a person who exports goods which have caused the deposit to be provided.

(Details of contract, etc. provided in lieu of deposit pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-7. If an applicant ordered to deposit enters into a contract referred to in paragraph (5) of Article 69-6 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for export suspension) of the Act, the contract shall be entered into, as its counterparty, with a bank, credit union (Shinkin bank), insurance company or other financial institution established in Japan and approved by the Director General of Customs (simply referred to as “financial institution” in item (i) and paragraph (3)) and shall meet the requirements set forth in the following:

(i) that the financial institution shall, for the applicant ordered to deposit, pay, within the amount of money ordered to deposit by the Director General of Customs, the exporter in an amount indicated in a document delivered at the request of the exporter, that is, a document which confirms that the exporter who has the right to claim compensation for damages provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-6 of the Act against the applicant has the right to claim payment of money against the financial institution;

(ii) that the contract ceases to be effective at the time when the contract is rescinded with the approval of the Director General of Customs;

(iii) that rescission of the contract or any modification thereto may not be made without the approval of the Director General of Customs.

(2) If an applicant ordered to deposit has entered into a contract referred to in paragraph (5) of Article 69-6 of the Act (including the case where the contract has been modified with the approval of the Director General of Customs), the applicant shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating that fact, together with a copy of the contract.

(3) The Director General of Customs shall, if the document and a copy of the contract prescribed in the preceding paragraph have been submitted, deliver without delay to a person who exports goods which have caused the contract to be entered into, a document stating that fact, the name and address of a financial institution (i.e., a counterparty of the contract) and the amount of money specified in the contract.

(4) The Director General of Customs shall, in the case where the document and a copy of the contract prescribed in paragraph (2) have been submitted, if the Director General of Customs is sought from an exporter who has the right to claim compensation for damages provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-6 of the Act against an applicant ordered to deposit and entered into a contract referred to in that paragraph, confirmation of the exporter's right to claim compensation for damages and the amount covered by that right and if it is found, based on a certified copy of court's decision, a document evidencing settlement or the like, that there are reasonable grounds for the exporter's request, deliver to that exporter a document confirming the exporter's right to claim compensation for damages and the amount covered by the right.

(Procedures for exercise of right pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-8. An exporter who has the right provided for in paragraph (6) of Article 69-6 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for export suspension) of the Act (hereinafter in this Article simply referred to as "right") may file an application for the exercise of right with the Director General of Customs.

(2) The Director General of Customs shall, in the case where an application referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, if it is found, based on a certified copy of court's decision, a document evidencing settlement or the like, that there are reasonable grounds for the application, deliver to the exporter who has filed the application a document confirming the exporter's right.

(3) The Director General of Customs may, in the case where deposit has been provided by means of securities, if it is necessary for the exercise of right, convert the securities to cash. In that event, the charges necessary for conversion shall be deducted from the amount so converted.

(4) In addition to the matters provided for in the preceding three paragraphs, any other necessary matters concerning the exercise of right shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Justice Order and the Ministry of Finance Order.

(Procedures for application for approval of recovery of deposit, etc. pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-9. A person who seeks the approval referred to in item (iv) of paragraph (8) of Article 69-6 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for export suspension) of the Act shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating that the person seeks the approval referred to in that item, accompanied by a copy of a written contract pertaining to the contract referred to in paragraph (5) of that Article.

(2) A person who seeks the approval referred to in item (v) of paragraph (8) of Article 69-6 of the Act shall, after having provided another deposit in lieu of the deposit actually provided, submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating that the person seeks the approval referred to in that item and the reason therefor, together with an authenticated copy of a certificate of deposit pertaining to another deposit.

(Procedures for seeking opinion pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-10. A person who seeks the opinion prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 (Seeking opinion pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act (hereinafter in this Article and the items of paragraph (1) of the next Article referred to as “request for seeking opinion”) shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating matters set forth in the following items, accompanied by, in the case where a person who makes the request for seeking opinion is a patentholder or other right holder provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act, materials which may clarify the specific conditions of goods or processes deemed to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the goods pertaining to the request or the specific conditions of goods deemed to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 (Definitions) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act (excluding those acts specified in item (vii) of paragraph (1) of Article 19 (Exclusion from application, etc.) of that Act), or in the case where a person who makes the request for seeking opinion is an exporter provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act, materials which may clarify the specific conditions of goods or processes deemed not to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the patentholder or other right holder provided for in that paragraph with respect to goods pertaining to the request or the specific conditions of goods deemed not to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act:

- (i) the date of notification provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act;
- (ii) if the person has been notified that the period until the day on which ten working days elapse, as provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act has been extended pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph, that fact;
- (iii) the fact that the person makes a request for seeking opinion and the reason therefor;
- (iv) any other relevant matters.

(Procedures for seeking opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry, etc. pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-11. If the Director General of Customs seeks the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry or the Commissioner of the Patent Office pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-7 (Seeking the opinion pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall submit to the Minister or the Commissioner a document stating that fact and a document as specified in each of the following items for the category of the cases as set forth respectively therein, accompanied by a copy of a document submitted pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article, materials provided for in that Article and other materials that may serve as a reference for the Minister or the Commissioner:

- (i) if a person who makes a request for opinion is a patentholder or other right holder provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act: a document stating the specific conditions of goods or processes found to compose the acts of infringing the person's patent right, utility model right or design right of goods pertaining to the request and identified by the Director General of Customs or the specific conditions of goods found to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 (Definitions) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act and identified by the Director General of Customs;
- (ii) if a person who makes a request for opinion is an exporter provided for in paragraph

(1) of Article 69-7 of the Act: a document stating the specific conditions of goods or processes found not to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the patentholder or other right holder with respect to goods pertaining to the request and identified by the Director General of Customs or the specific conditions of goods found not to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act and identified by the Director General of Customs.

(2) If the Director General of Customs seeks the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry or the Commissioner of the Patent Office pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (9) of Article 69-7 of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall submit to the Minister or the Commissioner a document stating that fact, the reason therefor and the specific conditions of goods or processes deemed to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the patentholder or other right holder pertaining to seeking the opinion, as provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act and identified by the Director General of Customs or the specific conditions of goods deemed to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act and identified by the Director General of Customs, accompanied by materials that may clarify the specific conditions and other materials that may serve as a reference for the Minister or the Commissioner.

(3) The Director General of Customs shall, before seeking the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry or the Commissioner of the Patent Office pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) or (9) of Article 69-7 of the Act, provide the patentholder or other right holder and the exporter, as provided for in paragraph (1) of that Article, with an opportunity to state their opinions with respect to the materials provided for in the preceding two paragraphs.

(Procedures, etc. for seeking opinion of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, etc. in verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-12. If the Director General of Customs seeks the opinion of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article 69-8 (Seeking opinion of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, etc. in verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall submit to the Minister concerned a document stating that fact and the reason therefor, accompanied by materials concerning the suspect goods concerned and other materials that may serve as a reference for the Minister concerned.

(2) The Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry may, if it is necessary for providing the opinion pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-8 of the Act, hear the opinions of a holder of a plant breeder's right, of a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition or of a person who exports goods pertaining to the verification procedures, as provided for in paragraph (3) of that Article, of other person concerned or of a person having academic background and experience. In this case, necessary procedures and other relevant matters shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries Order or by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry Order.

(Procedures for seeking opinions of technical advisers in verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-13. If the Director General of Customs seeks opinions of technical advisers pursuant to the provisions of Article 69-9 (Seeking opinions of technical advisers in verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall send to the technical advisers a document stating that fact and the reason therefor, accompanied by materials relating to the suspect goods concerned and other materials that may serve as a reference for the technical advisers.

(Procedures for seeking discontinuance of verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-14. A person who seeks discontinuance of verification procedures as prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-10 (Seeking discontinuance of verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act (referred to as "request for discontinuance of verification procedures" in item (iv)), shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating the matters set forth in the following:

(i) the date of notification provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 (Seeking opinion pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act, that is, the date on which a notification was received pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-10 of the Act;

- (ii) if the person has been notified that the period until the day on which ten working days elapse as provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-7 of the Act is to be extended pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph, that fact;
- (iii) if the person has received a notification prescribed in paragraph (6) of Article 69-7 of the Act, the date of receipt of the notification;
- (iv) the fact that the person makes a request for discontinuance of verification procedures;
- (v) any other relevant matters.

(Mutatis mutandis application of procedures, etc. for cases where deposit has been provided pursuant to the order of the Director General of Customs)

Article 62-15. Articles 62-6 and 62-7 apply mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the opinion as prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-10 (Seeking discontinuance of verification procedures pertaining to goods the exportation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act and has been ordered to provide deposit pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of that Article, Article 62-8 applies mutatis mutandis to the procedures for the exercise of right as provided for in paragraph (7) of Article 69-10 of the Act, paragraph (1) of Article 62-9 applies mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the approval referred to in item (ii) of paragraph (9) of Article 69-10 of the Act, and paragraph (2) of Article 62-9 applies mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the approval referred to in item (iii) of paragraph (9) of Article 69-10 of the Act. Subsection 2 Goods the Importation of which is Prohibited

(Verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-16. The Director General of Customs shall, in the verification procedures provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-12 (Verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act (hereinafter in this Article referred to as “verification procedures”), provide a holder of patent right, utility model right, design right, trademark right, copyright, copyright neighboring right, circuit layout design right or plant breeder’s right, or a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition (i.e., a person provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-12 of the Act; the same applies in the next paragraph and items (iv) and (vii) of paragraph (3) of this Article and paragraph (2) of Article 62-29), pertaining to goods subject to verification procedures (hereinafter in this Article, item (i) of paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) of Article 62-24, paragraph (1) of Article 62-29 and Article 62-30 referred to as “suspect goods”) and a person who imports these suspect goods (hereinafter in this Article referred to as “importer”) with an opportunity to produce evidence and state their opinions as to whether the suspect goods fall under those set forth in item (ix) or (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 (Goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act; provided, however, that this does not apply to the case where a document provided for in item (v) of paragraph (4) has not been submitted within the time limit specified in that item by an importer who has received a notification referred to in paragraph (4).

(2) The Director General of Customs shall, if the evidence produced pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and any other evidence employed in verification procedures are to be taken as a basis for the verification referred to in paragraph (5) of Article 69-12 of the Act, provide a holder of patent right, utility model right, design right, trademark right, copyright, copyright neighboring right, circuit layout design right or plant breeder's right, or a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition (in the next paragraph, item (ii) of paragraph (4) and paragraph (6) collectively referred to as "right holder") or an importer, pertaining to the verification procedures, with an opportunity to state the opinion with respect to the evidence.

(3) A notification to a right holder as prescribed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 69-12 of the Act shall be issued in writing, stating the matters set forth in the following:

(i) the description of suspect goods;

(ii) the names and addresses of an importer and consignor of suspect goods;

(iii) the details of patent right, utility model right, design right, trademark right, copyright, copyright neighboring right, circuit layout design right or plant breeder's right, pertaining to suspect goods (limited to suspect goods subject to the verification procedures pertaining to those set forth in item (ix) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act);

(iv) the details of indication of goods, etc., the details of configuration of goods or the details of technological restriction measures (i.e., indication of goods, etc., configuration of goods or technological restriction measures as provided for in item (i), (ii), (iii), (xvii) or (xviii) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 (Definitions) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act, pertaining to a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition; the same applies in item (ii) of the next Article) pertaining to suspect goods (limited to suspect goods subject to verification procedures pertaining to those set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act);

(v) the reason for initiating verification procedures;

(vi) in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 (Procedures for filing an application pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act has been accepted, if verification procedures pertaining to the application are initiated, that fact;

(vii) the fact that a right holder may produce evidence and state the opinion to demonstrate that the suspect goods fall under those set forth in item (ix) or (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act (where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 of the Act (excluding an application pertaining to a holder of patent right, utility model right, design right or a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition pertaining to goods which compose the acts (excluding the acts specified in item (vii) of paragraph (1) of Article 19 (Exclusion from application, etc.) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act) set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 of that Act; the same applies in Article 62-27 and the items of paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) of Article 62-28) has been accepted, if verification procedures pertaining to the application have been initiated, the fact that the right holder may produce evidence and state the opinion, provided that the document provided for in item (v) of the next paragraph has been submitted within the time limit specified in that item by an importer who has received a notification referred to in the next paragraph), and the time limit therefor;

(viii) in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 of the Act has been accepted, if verification procedures pertaining to the application are initiated, the fact that the right holder may inspect suspect goods upon application to be made within the time limit referred to in the preceding item;

(ix) any other relevant matters.

(4) A notification to an importer as prescribed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 69-12 of the Act shall be issued in writing, stating the matters set forth in the following:

(i) the description and quantity of suspect goods, and the date of import declaration of these goods (or, if the suspect goods are postal items provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 76 (Simplified export or import procedures for postal items) of the Act, the date of the presentation prescribed in paragraph (3) of that Article);

(ii) the name and address of a right holder;

(iii) the fact that an importer may produce evidence and state the opinion to demonstrate that suspect goods do not fall under those set forth in item (ix) or (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act (in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 of the Act has been accepted, if verification procedures pertaining to the application have been initiated, the fact that the importer may produce evidence and state the opinion, provided that the document provided for in item (v) of paragraph (4) has been submitted within the time limit specified in item (v) of paragraph (4)), and the time limit therefor;

(iv) the fact that suspect goods may, if verified to fall under those set forth in item (ix) or (x) of paragraph (1) of that Article, be confiscated and subject to disposal pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-11 of the Act;

(v) in the case where the application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 of the Act has been accepted, if verification procedures pertaining to that application are to be initiated, the fact that an importer shall, if the importer disputes over whether suspect goods fall under those set forth in item (ix) or (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act, submit a document stating that fact to the Director General of Customs on or before the day on which ten days elapse (the holidays of administrative organs set forth in the items of paragraph (1) of Article 1 of the Act on the Holidays of Administrative Organs (Act No. 91 of 1988) shall not be included) from the date of receipt of the notification;

(vi) in the case where an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 of the Act has been accepted, if verification procedures pertaining to the application are initiated, the fact that a person who has filed the application or an importer (excluding an importer who may inspect the suspect goods pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 36 of the Act, paragraph (1) of Article 40 of the Act (including the case where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 49 of the Act), paragraph (3) of Article 62-2 and paragraph (1) of Article 62-8) may inspect suspect goods upon application to be made within the time limit referred to in item (iii);

(vii) the matters set forth in items (iii) to (vi) and (ix) of the preceding paragraph.

(5) A notification prescribed in paragraph (3) of Article 69-12 of the Act shall be issued in writing.

(6) If a document provided for in item (v) of paragraph (4) has, within the time limit provided for in that item, been submitted by an importer who has received a notification referred to in that paragraph, the Director General of Customs shall notify a right holder of that fact.

(Procedures for filing application pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-17. A person who intends to file an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 (Procedures, etc. for filing application pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act shall file with the Director General of Customs a written application stating matters set forth in the following, accompanied by evidence provided for in that paragraph:

copyright, copyright neighboring right, or plant breeder's right (collectively referred to as "right" in items (iii) and (iv)) (limited to the case where the person intends to file an application pertaining to goods set forth in item (ix) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 (Goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act);

(ii) the details of indication of goods, etc., the details of configuration of goods or the details of technological restriction measures (limited to the case where the person intends to file an application pertaining to goods set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act);

(iii) the description of goods found to infringe the right or business interests (i.e., business interests relating to goods set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 69-11 of the Act, infringed by the acts provided for in that item; the same applies in the next item);

(iv) the reason why the goods referred to in the preceding item are found to infringe the right or business interests;

(v) the desired period for which the application provided for in paragraph (3) of Article 69-13 of the Act is effective (the period shall be within four years);

(vi) any other relevant matters.

(Provision of opportunity for inspection pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-18. A person who conducts the inspection prescribed in paragraph (4) of Article 69-13 (Procedures, etc. for filing an application pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act shall, within the time limit referred to in item (vii) of paragraph (3) or item (iii) of paragraph (4) of Article 62-16, file a written application for inspection with the Director General of Customs, accompanied by a copy of a written notification referred to in paragraph (3) or (4) of that Article.

(Procedures for seeking opinions of technical advisers where application for import suspension is filed)

Article 62-19. If the Director General of Customs seeks opinions of technical advisers pursuant to the provisions of Article 69-14 (Seeking opinions of technical advisers where application for import suspension is filed) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall send to the technical advisers a document stating that fact and the reason therefor, accompanied by materials concerning goods pertaining to the application and other materials that may serve as a reference for the technical advisers.

(Procedures for providing, pursuant to the order of the Director General of Customs, deposit pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-20. A person who has filed an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-13 (Procedures, etc. for filing an application pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act and has been ordered to provide monetary deposit pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2) of Article 69-15 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for import suspension) of the Act (in the next Article referred to as “applicant ordered to deposit”) shall, if the person has provided the deposit (including deposit of securities prescribed in paragraph (3) of Article 69-15 of the Act), submit an authenticated copy of a certificate of deposit to the Director General of Customs without delay.

(2) The Director General of Customs shall, if an authenticated copy of a certificate of deposit prescribed in the preceding paragraph is submitted, deliver without delay a document stating that fact and a copy of the authenticated copy of the certificate of deposit to a person who imports goods which have caused the deposit to be provided.

(Details of contract, etc. provided in lieu of deposit, pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-21. In cases where an applicant ordered to deposit enters into a contract referred to in paragraph (5) of Article 69-15 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for import suspension) of the Act, the contract shall be entered into, as its counterparty, with a bank, credit union (Shinkin bank), insurance company or other financial institution established in Japan and approved by the Director General of Customs (in item (i) and paragraph (3) simply referred to as “financial institution”), and shall meet the following requirements:

(i) that the financial institution shall, for the applicant ordered to deposit, pay, within the amount of money ordered to deposit by the Director General of Customs, the importer in an amount indicated in a document delivered at the request of the importer, that is, a document which confirms that the importer who has the right to claim compensation for damages provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-15 of the Act against that applicant has the right to claim payment of money against the financial institution;

(ii) that the contract ceases to be effective if the contract is rescinded with the approval of the Director General of Customs;

(iii) that rescission of the contract or any modification thereto may not be made without the approval of the Director General of Customs.

(2) If the applicant ordered to deposit has entered into a contract referred to in paragraph (5) of Article 69-15 of the Act (including the case where the contract has been modified with the approval of the Director General of Customs), the applicant shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating that fact, accompanied by a copy of the contract.

(3) The Director General of Customs shall, if a document and a copy of contract, prescribed in the preceding paragraph have been submitted, deliver to a person who imports goods which have caused the contract to be entered into, a document stating that fact, the name and address of a financial institution (i.e., a counterparty of the contract) and the amount of money stated in the contract, without delay.

(4) In the case where a document and a copy of contract prescribed in paragraph (2) have been submitted, if the Director General of Customs is sought, from an importer who has the right to claim compensation for damages provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-15 of the Act against an applicant who has been ordered to deposit and has entered into a contract referred to in that paragraph, confirmation of the importer's right to claim compensation for damages and the amount covered by that right, and if it is found, based on a certified copy of court's decision, a document evidencing settlement or the like, that there are reasonable grounds for the importer's request, the Director General of Customs shall deliver to that importer a document confirming the importer's right to claim compensation for damages and the amount covered by that right.

(Procedures for exercise of right pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-22. An importer who has the right provided for in paragraph (6) of Article 69-15 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for import suspension) of the Act (hereinafter in this Article simply referred to as "right") may file an application for exercise of right with Director General of Customs.

(2) The Director General of Customs shall, in the case where an application referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, if it is found, based on a certified copy of court's decision, a document evidencing settlement or the like, that there are reasonable grounds for the application, deliver to the importer who has filed the application a document confirming the right of the importer.

(3) The Director General of Customs may, in the case where deposit has been provided by means of securities, if it is necessary for the exercise of right, convert the securities to cash. In that event, the charges necessary for conversion shall be deducted from the amount so converted.

(4) In addition to the matters provided for in the preceding three paragraphs, other necessary matters concerning the exercise of right shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Justice Order and the Ministry of Finance Order.

(Procedures for seeking approval of recovery of deposit, etc. pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-23. A person who seeks the approval referred to in item (iv) of paragraph (8) of Article 69-15 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for import suspension) of the Act shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating that the person seeks the approval referred to in that item, accompanied by a copy of a written contract pertaining to the contract referred to in paragraph (5) of that Article.

(2) A person who seeks the approval referred to in item (v) of paragraph (8) of Article 69-15 of the Act shall, after having provided another deposit in lieu of the deposit actually provided, submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating the request for approval referred to in that item and the reason therefor, accompanied by the authenticated copy of a certificate of deposit pertaining to another deposit.

(Procedures for seeking approval of inspection of a sample)

Article 62-24. A person who seeks the approval referred to in paragraph (1) of Article 69-16 (Inspection of a sample of suspect goods by an applicant) of the Act shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating the following matters, accompanied by a copy of a written notification referred to in paragraph (3) of Article 62-16:

(i) the reason why inspection of the sample is necessary for producing evidence and stating the opinion, with respect to suspect goods pertaining to the sample, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article 62-16;

(ii) the quantity of the sample;

(iii) the place, and the date and time of conducting inspection of the sample and the means thereof;

(iv) if the sample is to be stored, either before or after inspection, at a place other than a place provided for in the preceding item, the place of storage and the means of storage;

(v) the means of transport if the sample is to be transported;

(vi) any other relevant matters.

(2) In the case where an application referred to in paragraph (1) of Article 69-16 of the Act has been filed, if the Director General of Customs, pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of paragraph (1) of Article 69-16 of the Act, notifies a person who intends to import suspect goods pertaining to the sample (hereinafter in this Article referred to as “importer”) of the fact that the application has been filed, the Director General of Customs shall also notify the importer that the importer may state the opinion to the Director General of Customs with respect to the application.

(3) In the case where an application referred to in paragraph (1) of Article 69-16 of the Act has been filed, if the Director General of Customs elects not to approve the application, the Director General of Customs shall notify in writing an applicant and importer of that fact and the reason therefor.

(4) The Director General of Customs shall, in cases where a notification prescribed in paragraph (3) of Article 69-16 of the Act is issued to an importer, notify the importer of approval of inspection of the sample and of the place, date and time of the inspection in writing.

(5) The expenses to be borne by an applicant referred to in paragraph (4) of Article 69-16 of the Act pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph shall be those necessary for the transport, storage or inspection of the sample and other expenses incurred from handling of the sample (including the expenses necessary for returning the sample).

(Mutatis mutandis application of procedures, etc. for cases where deposit has been provided pursuant to the order of the Director General of Customs)

Article 62-25. Articles 62-20 and 62-21 apply mutatis mutandis to a person who files an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-16 (Inspection of a sample of suspect goods by applicant) of the Act and has been ordered to provide monetary deposit pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article 69-15 (Deposit, etc. pertaining to application for import suspension) of the Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (5) of Article 69-16 of the Act, Article 62-22 applies mutatis mutandis to the procedures for exercise of right provided for in paragraph (6) of Article 69-15 of the Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (5) of Article 69-16 of the Act, paragraph (1) of Article 62-23 applies mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the approval referred to in item (iv) of paragraph (8) of Article 69-15 of the Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (5) of Article 69-16 of the Act and paragraph (2) of Article 62-23 applies mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the approval referred to in item (v) of paragraph (8) of Article 69-15 of the Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (5) of Article 69-16 of the Act. In this case, the terms set forth in the middle columns of the following table, which are used in the paragraphs in the left columns shall be replaced respectively by the terms shown in the right columns:

(Procedures for request for attendance during inspection of a sample)

Article 62-26. A person who files an application prescribed in paragraph (6) of Article 69-16 (Inspection of sample of suspect goods by applicant) of the Act shall submit, prior to the day on which inspection of a sample as notified pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4) of Article 62-24 is conducted, to the Director General of Customs a document stating that fact, the name and address of a person who is to attend the inspection and other relevant matters. In this case, the Director General of Customs who has received the document shall notify a person who has filed an application referred to in paragraph (1) of Article 69-16 of the Act of the name of a person who is to attend and other relevant matters.

(Procedures for seeking opinion pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-27. A person who seeks the opinion as prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 (Seeking opinion pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act (hereinafter in this Article and the items of paragraph (1) of the next Article referred to as “request for seeking opinion”) shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating matters set forth in the following, accompanied by, in the case where a person who makes a request for seeking opinion is a patentholder or other right holder provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act, materials which may clarify the specific conditions of goods or processes deemed to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of goods pertaining to the request or the specific conditions of goods deemed to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 (Definitions) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act, or in the case where a person who makes a request for seeking opinion is an importer provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act, materials which may clarify the specific conditions of goods or processes deemed not to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the patentholder or other right holder provided for in that paragraph with respect to the goods pertaining to the request or the specific conditions of goods deemed not to compose the acts set forth in that item:

- (i) the date of the notification provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act;
- (ii) if the person has been notified that the period until the day on which ten days elapse as provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act, has been extended pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph, that fact;
- (iii) that the person makes a request for seeking the opinion and the reason therefor;
- (iv) any other relevant matters.

(Procedures for seeking opinions of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry, etc. pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-28. If the Director General of Customs seeks the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry or the Commissioner of the Patent Office pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-17 (Seeking opinions pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall submit to the Minister or the Commissioner a document stating that fact and a document as specified in each of the following items for the category of the cases as set forth respectively therein, accompanied by a copy of a document submitted pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article, materials provided for in that Article and other materials that may serve as a reference for the Minister or the Commissioner:

- (i) if a person who makes a request for seeking opinion is a patentholder or other right holder provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act: a document stating the specific conditions of goods or processes found to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of goods pertaining to the request and identified by the Director General of Customs or the specific conditions of goods found to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 (Definitions) of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act and identified by the Director General of Customs;

(ii) if a person who makes a request for seeking opinion is an importer provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act: a document stating the specific conditions of goods or processes found not to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the patentholder or other right holder with respect to goods pertaining to the request and identified by the Director General of Customs or the specific conditions of goods found not to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act and identified by the Director General of Customs.

(2) If the Director General of Customs seeks the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry or the Commissioner of the Patent Office pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (9) of Article 69-17 of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall submit to the Minister or the Commissioner a document stating that fact, the reason therefor and the specific conditions of goods or processes found to compose the acts of infringing the patent right, utility model right or design right of the patentholder or other right holder provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act, pertaining to the request for the opinion and identified by the Director General of Customs or the specific conditions of goods found to compose the acts set forth in item (x) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention Act and identified by the Director General of Customs, accompanied by materials which clarify the specific conditions and other materials that may serve as a reference for the Minister or the Commissioner.

(3) The Director General of Customs shall, before seeking the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry or the Commissioner of the Patent Office pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) or (9) of Article 69-17 of the Act, provide the patentholder or other right holder and importer concerned, as provided for in paragraph (1) of that Article, with an opportunity to state their opinions with respect to the materials provided for in the preceding two paragraphs.

(Procedures, etc. for seeking opinions of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, etc. in verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-29. If the Director General of Customs seeks the opinion of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article 69-18 (Seeking opinions of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, etc. in verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall submit to the Minister concerned a document stating that fact and the reason therefor, accompanied by materials relating to the suspect goods concerned and other materials that may serve as a reference for the Minister concerned.

(2) The Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry may, if it is found necessary for providing the opinion pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-18 of the Act, hear the opinions of a holder of a plant breeder's right, of a person who has the right to seek an injunction against unfair competition, of a person who imports goods pertaining to the verification procedures, as provided for in paragraph (3) of that Article, of other person concerned or of a person having academic background and experience. In this case, the necessary procedures and other relevant matters shall be prescribed by the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries Order or by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry Order.

(Procedures for seeking opinions of technical advisers in verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-30. If the Director General of Customs seeks opinions of technical advisers pursuant to the provisions of Article 69-19 (Seeking opinions of technical advisers in verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited) of the Act, the Director General of Customs shall send to the technical advisers a document stating that fact and the reason therefor, accompanied by materials relating to the suspect goods concerned and other materials that may serve as a reference for the technical advisers.

(Procedures for seeking discontinuance of verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited)

Article 62-31. A person who seeks discontinuance of verification procedures as prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-20 (Seeking discontinuance of verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act (referred to as "request for discontinuance of verification procedures" in item (iv)) shall submit to the Director General of Customs a document stating the matters set forth in the following:

(i) the date of notification provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 (Seeking opinions pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act, that is, the date on which a notification was received pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 69-20 of the Act;

(ii) if the person has been notified that the period until the day on which ten days elapse as provided for in paragraph (1) of Article 69-17 of the Act is to be extended pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph, that fact;

(iii) if the person has received a notification prescribed in paragraph (6) of Article 69-17 of the Act, the date of receipt of the notification;

(iv) the fact that the person makes a request for discontinuance of verification procedures;

(v) any other relevant matters.

(Mutatis mutandis application of procedures, etc. for cases where deposit has been provided pursuant to the order of the Director General of Customs)

Article 62-32. Articles 62-20 and 62-21 apply mutatis mutandis to a person who makes a request prescribed in paragraph (1) of Article 69-20 (Seeking discontinuance of verification procedures pertaining to goods the importation of which is prohibited, etc.) of the Act and has been ordered to offer monetary deposit pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of that Article, Article 62-22 applies mutatis mutandis to the procedures for exercise of right as provided for in paragraph (7) of Article 69-20 of the Act, paragraph (1) of Article 62-23 applies mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the approval referred to in item (ii) of paragraph (9) of Article 69-20 of the Act, and paragraph (2) of Article 62-23 applies mutatis mutandis to a person who seeks the approval referred to in item (iii) of paragraph (9) of Article 69-20 of the Act. In this case, the terms set forth in the middle columns of the following table, which are used in the paragraphs of the left columns, shall be replaced respectively with the terms shown in the right columns:
